

CURRENT THEMES IN THE STUDY OF TERRORISM & POLITICAL VIOLENCE

7TH ANNUAL POSTGRADUATE CONFERENCE

5TH MAY 2023 - UWE BRISTOL

The Society for Terrorism Research and UWE Bristol's Department of Social Sciences are pleased to announce the

UWE
Bristol

CALL FOR PAPERS

We invite submissions for papers from postgraduate students on all areas of Terrorism Studies and Political Violence research. Submissions should include a paper title and abstract (max. 200 words), full name of author(s) and current institutional affiliation and/or current position. Papers are invited for themes including but not exclusive to:

Conceptual and Definitional Debates • Causes, Development and Consequences of Terrorism
Ideologies of Terrorism • (De-)Radicalisation • Lone-Actor Terrorism • Psychology of Terrorism
(Pro-)State Terrorism • Single-Issue Terrorism • Emerging Threats
Children and Terrorism • Gender and Terrorism • Race and Terrorism • Religion and Terrorism
Warfare and Terrorism • Crime-Terror Nexus • Responses to Terrorism

If you wish to organise a conference panel, please email the conference organisers regarding the theme and panelists' names. All panelists should submit individual abstracts before the deadline.

Registration will cost £50. It gives postgraduates one year's membership in the Society for Terrorism Research for 2023. Non-presenting attendees also need to pay the registration fee.

Please submit proposals electronically to João Raphael da Silva (Joao.daSilva@UWE.ac.uk) cc'ing Rachel Monaghan (Rachel.Monaghan@coventry.ac.uk) by 31st March 2023.

IMPORTANT DATES

31st March 2023

Deadline for Paper/Panel
Proposals

14th April 2023

Notification of Acceptance

28th April 2023

Deadline for Payment

5th May 2023

Conference