Call for papers

Participation

You do not need to present a paper to attend the conference and we welcome non-presenting postgraduates and interested practitioners but you will need to pay the conference fee.

Cost

The cost of the conference will be £50, which will give postgraduates one year's membership in the Society for Terrorism Research for 2022. Invitations will be shared when booking opens.

Important Deadlines

Paper and Panel Proposals: Wednesday 30 March 2022

Notification of Acceptance: Wednesday 13 April 2022

Conference Payment Deadline: Friday 29 April 2022

All queries and submissions should be emailed to Dr John Lamb at Staffordshire University: John.Lamb@staffs.ac.uk

Covid-19 Guidance

Throughout the pandemic we have been following Government and Department for Education guidance as it emerges, looking at how it applies to all aspects of our University activities in order to keep our community safe. You can find our latest guidance here: staffs.ac.uk/coronavirus

The Society for Terrorism Research and Staffordshire University's Institute of Policing are pleased to announce our call for papers ahead of our 6th annual postgraduate conference, 'Current Themes in the Study of Terrorism and Political Violence', on 6 May 2022.

We invite submissions for papers from postgraduate students on all areas of terrorism and political violence research. Submissions should include a paper title and abstract (max. 500 words), full name(s) and current institutional affiliation and/or current position by 30 March 2022.

Please submit proposals electronically to John.Lamb@staffs.ac.uk

Papers are invited for themes including but not exclusive to:

- Conceptual Debates in Terrorism Research
- Psychology of Terrorism
- Terrorism and Organized Crime
- Lone Actor Terrorism
- Terrorist Learning
- Cyber Terrorism
- Terrorism and Prisons
- Counter-Terrorism Legislation
- Emerging Threats
- State Responses to Terrorism
- Terrorism and Warfare
- Terrorism and Identity
- Children and Terrorism
- Gender and Terrorism
- Dealing with Political Violence
- The Legacy of Political Violence

If you wish to organise a conference panel, please email the conference organisers regarding the theme and panelists' names. All panelists should submit individual abstracts before the deadline.
